

Services provided by the Law Library of Victoria

All library users enjoy

Website with general legal information and court content

Law Reports and current legal textbooks for use in the library

Heritage collections

Events and exhibitions

Regular updates of legal information

Research guides

Assistance with research

Use of extensive electronic legal resources via computers in the library

In addition, all members of the legal profession enjoy

Legal research training*

Supply of documents from libraries globally*

*costs may apply

Judicial officers and court staff also enjoy

Access to extensive electronic resources wherever you have the Internet available

24/7 access to local court library print collections

Our client organisations (courts, tribunals & partners) are offered:

Management of print and online collections, including publisher liaison and subscription renewals

Publication of judgments and decisions